CHICAGO — Uptown now boasts a unique establishment that channels the spirit of Taiwan's WanHua district, meticulously crafted by interior designer Vanessa Vu. A nominee for the prestigious "30 for 30" award, recognizing top interior designers in the U.S., Vanessa's talent shines in every corner of this space.

A Journey Through Time and Space

Drawing from their cherished memories of WanHua, Taiwan – Kevin's childhood neighborhood – their shared passion for black and white comic books, and their heartfelt connection, Vanessa has meticulously woven the district's spirit into this space. Architectural elements from WanHua seamlessly merge with two-dimensional art, creating an unforgettable experience.

Architectural Alchemy

Vanessa's discerning eye for detail and her profound comprehension of architectural elements have empowered her to seamlessly infuse the essence of WanHua into the very fabric of this Uptown establishment. By incorporating distinctive elements from WanHua's architectural landscape, including intricate wooden carvings and ornate facades, Vanessa has transported the very soul of this beloved neighborhood to the bustling streets of Uptown.
